

Elsa Yasukawa, AIA Inter Assoc

Principal
YCC International, LLP

elsayc@yccint.com

Ms. Yasukawa has more than twenty five years of experience in the fields of architecture, planning and education. She holds a Master in Architecture and Urban Planning from the Universidad Nacional de Córdoba, Argentina. Her portfolio includes projects in North America, South America, and Europe. She is presently working on various LEED registered projects and her portfolio also includes Strategic Services for Sustainable Business Development.

Professional Memberships

Licensed Architect, Argentina

American Institute of Architects, International Associate, USA

U.S. Green Building Council, LEED™ Accredited Professional, USA

Academic Involvement

She has taught architectural design as Faculty of the Universidad Nacional de Córdoba in Argentina and at California State Fullerton University (CSFU) in their Green Building Certificate Program. She is currently a Professor at the University California Irvine (UCI) in their Sustainability Leadership Certificate Program. She is also LEED Faculty for the United States Green Building Council (USGBC)

Non-profit involvement

Ms Yasukawa was one of the Founders of the United States Green Building Council-Orange County Chapter in 2003. She is the World Green Building Council (WorldGBC) Special Representative for Latin America, a Founding Member of the Argentina Green Building Council (AGBC) and an Advisory Board Member of the Egyptian Green Building Council (EGBC).

She is also an Advisory Board member of the Center for Unconventional Security Affairs (CUSA) at the University of California Irvine (UCI).